

French Day

Wednesday 12th July

Own clothes day - wear blue, white and red

There will be a prize in each class for the most creative French coloured clothing.

The children will be taking part in drawing, painting and sporty activities, so please ensure that this is possible in their coloured outfit.

French Café will be open - with orange juice and croissants on offer

